PGA TOUR LATINOAMÉRICA QUALIFIER HELD AT THE RON GARL RENOVATED SUN N' LAKE GOLF CLUB

Last week the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica held the American qualifier tournament for the 2013 season at the Ron Garl renovated Sun N' Lake Golf Club's Deer Run Golf Course in Sebring, Florida, with a field of 126 players.

In addition to 81 competitors from the United States, the field includes 51 other players from countries such as Canada (8 players), Mexico (7), Argentina (4), Colombia (3), Spain (3) and England (3).

The other nations represented by one or two players are Australia, Brazil, Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Ireland, Korea, Panama, Poland, Scotland, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, Thailand, Venezuela and Wales.

This international field battled for twenty PGA TOUR Latinoamérica spots over the 72-hole qualifier. Success at the Sebring Qualifying Tournament guarantees players a fifteen-tournament schedule in nine countries, beginning halfway through March.

The Top 20 Winners...Nine countries are represented among the top 20 players earning their PGA Tour Latinoamérica card.

Ron Garl is traveling to Bogota, Colombia to play in the PGA Tour's Web.com Pro Am (Tuesday, February 26th) for the Colombia Championship, which is being held at Country Club de Bogota on February 28th thru March 3rd.
