Guan Tianlang calls Lakewood Golf Club in New Orleans, his “home course” in the United States. He honed his short game skills on the Garl designed Practice Facility to get ready to play in the Masters in April.

Guan Tianlang the 14-year-old phenom from China was the youngest to ever qualify and play in the Masters.

Guan has also been practicing at Timacuan Golf Club in Lake Mary, Florida, near Orlando (another Ron Garl course.)

Timacuan Golf Club - ranked as high as Top 10 semi-private courses in the state of Florida. Home of the EaglesDream Golf Academy with World Renowned Golf Instructor, Tim Sheredy.

Guan allowed Tyler Goynes, master club fitter at Lakewood Golf Club to change his grips and adjust his loft and lie on his clubs. Guan then returned to China and won the Asia Pacific Amateur Championship at Amata Springs Country Club in Chonburi, Thailand.
